Human Rights Agency Presents Annual Report 2011-2012

The Tennessee Human Rights Commission (THRC) recently presented its 2011-2012 Annual Report to the Governor, the General Assembly, and the public. The report is also available at www.tn.gov/humanrights. Click on “Brochures and Publications.”

The public can request that a copy of the report be sent via U.S. Mail. These copies are available on disc or in black and white hardcopy. Requests for copies should be made via the “Contact Us” link on the THRC website or by phone at 1-800-251-3589.

The Commission’s role, by means of enforcement and education, is to safeguard the citizens of Tennessee from discrimination in the areas of employment, housing, and public accommodations in regard to race, creed, color, religion, sex, disability, age, national origin, and familial status.

For more information on the THRC, including its role, policies, or the laws that govern the agency, call 1-800-251-3589 or visit the agency’s website at www.tn.gov/humanrights.
